All monopolies and

R. S. O. 1897, Chapter 330.

An Act respecting Real Property.

(De Donis Conditionalibus, etc.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Several sorts of gifts of lands upon condition;

1. First, concerning lands that many times are given upon condition, that is to wit, where any giveth his land to any man and his wife, and to the heirs begotten of the bodies of the same man and his wife, with such condition expressed that if the same man and his wife die without heirs of their bodies between them begotten, the land so given shall revert to the giver or his heir: In case also where one giveth lands in free marriage, which gift hath a condition annexed, though it be not expressed in the deed of gift, which is this, that if the husband and wife die without heir of their bodies begotten, the land so given shall revert to the giver or his heir: In case also where one giveth land to another, and the heirs of his body issuing; it seemed very hard, and yet seemeth to the givers and their heirs, that their will being expressed in the gift, was not heretofore, nor yet is observed: In all the cases aforesaid, after issue begotten and born between them, to whom the lands were given under such condition, heretofore such feoffees had power to alien the land so given, and to disherit their issue of the land, contrary to the minds of the givers, and contrary to the form expressed in the gift: And further, when the issue of such feoffee is failing, the land so given ought to return to the giver, or his heir, by form of the gift expressed in the deed, though the issue, if any were, had died: Yet by the deed and feoffment of them to whom land was so given upon condition, the donors have heretofore been barred of their reversion, which was directly repugnant to the form of the gift: Wherefore . . . it is ordained that the will of the giver, according to the form in the deed of gift manifestly expressed, shall be from henceforth observed; so that they to whom the land was given under such condition, shall have no power to alien the land so given, but that it shall remain unto the issue of them to whom it was given after their death, or shall revert unto the giver or his heirs, if issue fail, either by reason that there is no issue at all, or if any issue be, and fail by death, or heir of the body of such issue failing. Neither shall the second husband of any such woman, from henceforth, have anything in the land so given upon condition, after the death of his wife, nor the issue of the second husband and wife

In such gifts
the donor's will shall be

shall succeed in the inheritance, but immediately after the death of the husband and wife, to whom the land was so given, it shall come to their issue, or return unto the giver, or his heir, as before is said. . . . 13 Edw. 1 (St. of Westminster Sec.) c. 1, (commonly called "The Statute De Donis Conditionalibus").

2. Forasmuch as purchasers of lands and tenements of the fees of great men and other lords, have many times heretofore entered into their fees, to the prejudice of the lords to whom the freeholders of such great men have sold their lands and tenements to be holden in fee of their feoffors, and not of the chief lords of the fees, whereby the same chief lords have many times lost their escheats, marriages, and wardships of lands and tenements belonging to their fees; which thing seemed very hard and extreme unto those lords and other great men, and moreover in this case manifest disheritance: It is therefore provided, and ordained, that from henceforth it shall be lawful to every freeman to sell at his own pleasure his lands and tenements, or part of them, so that the feoffee shall hold the same lands or tenements of the chief lord of the same fee, by such service, and customs as his feoffor held before. 18 Edw. I. c. 1 (commonly called "The Statute Quia Emptores").

Freeholders may sell their lands so that the feoffee do hold of the chief lord.

3. And if he sell any part of such lands or tenements to any, the feoffee shall immediately hold it of the chief lord, and shall be forthwith charged with the services, for so much as pertaineth, or ought to pertain to the said chief lord for the same parcel, according to the quantity of the land or tenement so sold: And so in this case the same part of the service shall remain to the lord, to be taken by the hands of the feoffee, for the which he ought to be attendant and answerable to the same chief lord, according to the quantity of the land or tenement sold, for the parcel of the service so due. 18 Edw. I. c. 2.

Sale of part.

Apportionment of services.

4. And it is to be understood, that by the said sales or purchases of lands or tenements, or any parcels of them, such lands or tenements shall in no wise come into mortmain, either in part or in whole, neither by policy nor craft, contrary to the form of the statute made thereupon. And it is to wit, that this and the two preceding sections of this Act extend only to lands holden in fee simple. 18 Edw. I. c. 3.

Mortmain prohibited.

* * * * *

11. Lineal and collateral warranties at common law, with all their incidents, are abolished; but the liability of the executors, or administrators, or devisees, of any person who shall have made any covenant, is unaffected by this section. (See 4 and 5 Anne, c. 3 (or c. 16 in Ruffhead's Ed.) s. 21.) 2 Edw. VII. c. 1, s. 7.

Warranties abolished.

And the estate, right, title and possession, that was in such person that was, or shall be hereafter seized, of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to the use, confidence or trust, of any such person, or of any body politic, shall be from henceforth deemed and adjudged to be in him that hath such use, confidence or trust, after such quality, manner, form and condition, as he had before in or to the use, confidence or trust, that was in him.
27 Hen. VIII. c. 10, s. 1.

So where divers are seized to the use of any of them:

3. Where divers and many persons be, or hereafter shall happen to be, jointly seized, of and in any lands, tenements, rents, reversions, remainders, or other hereditaments, to the use, confidence or trust of any of them that be so jointly seized, then, in every such case, that person which shall have any such use, confidence or trust, in any such lands, tenements, rents, reversions, remainders, or hereditaments, shall, from henceforth, have, and be deemed to have, only to him, or them, that shall have such use, confidence or trust, such estate, possession, and seizin, of and in the same lands, tenements, rents, reversions, remainders, or other hereditaments, in like nature, manner and form, condition and course, as he or they had before in the use, confidence or trust, of the same lands, tenements or hereditaments; saving to all and singular those persons, and to their heirs, who are, or hereafter shall be, seized to any use, all such former right, title, entry, interest, possession, rents, customs, services, and action, as they, or any of them, might have had, to his or their own proper use, in or to any lands, tenements, rents, or hereditaments, whereof they be, or hereafter shall be, seized to any other use, as if this Act had never been made; anything contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding. 27 Hen. VIII. c. 10, s. 2.

Saving for rights of persons seized to any use.

4. And where also divers persons stand and be seized of and in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in fee simple or otherwise, to the use or intent that some other person shall have and receive yearly to him and his heirs an annual rent of forty dollars more or less out of the same lands and tenements, and some other person another annual rent to him and his assigns, for the term of life, or years, or for some other special time, according to such intent and use as hath been heretofore declared, limited, and made, thereof; in every such case the same person, his heirs and assigns, that hath such use and interest to have and receive any such annual rents out of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, shall be deemed to be in possession and seizin of the same rent, of and in such like estate as they had in the title, interest or use, of the said rent or profit, and as if a sufficient grant, or other lawful conveyance, had been made and executed to them by such as were or shall be seized to the use or intent of any such rent, to be had, made or paid, according to the very trust and intent thereof. And every such person as hath, or hereafter shall have, any title, use and interest, in or to, any such rent or profit, may lawfully distrain for non-payment of the said rent, and in his own name make avowries, or by his bailiffs or servants make cognizances and justifications, and have all other suits, entries and remedies for such rents, as if the same rents had been actually and really granted to him with sufficient clauses of distress, re-entry, or otherwise, according to such conditions, pains or other things, limited and appointed upon the trust and intent for payment, or surety of such rents. 27 Hen. VIII. c. 10, s. 3.

VIII. c. 10, s. 4.

6. Provided always that if any such woman be lawfully expelled or evicted from her said jointure, or from any part thereof, without any fraud or covin, by lawful entry, action, or by discontinuance of her husband, then every such woman shall be endowed of as much of the residue of her husband's tenements or hereditaments whereof she was before dowable, as the same lands and tenements from which she was so evicted and expelled shall amount or extend unto. 27 Hen. VIII. c. 10, s. 5.

Jointure made after marriage, except by statute, may be refused by the wife; who shall then have her dower.

Report of the Commissioners.

TO HIS HONOUR SIR JOHN MORISON GIBSON, K.C.M.G.,
Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario.

The Commissioners appointed to revise and consolidate the Public Statutes of Ontario, including those of the last Session of the Legislature, have the honour to report that they have completed such revision and consolidation, and they now submit herewith a printed Roll containing the same, and constituting "The Revised Statutes, 1914," chaptered 1 to 301.

The Commissioners have included in the Roll an Appendix (A) containing certain Acts and parts of Acts which are contained in Volume III. of the Revised Statutes, 1897, not repealed by the Revised Statutes of 1914, but in force in Ontario subject thereto, and an Appendix (B) containing certain Imperial Statutes and Statutes of the Dominion of Canada relating to the Constitution and Boundaries of Ontario.

In accordance with section 2 of Chapter 2 of the Acts of the last Session of the Legislature, the Commissioners have appended to the Roll a schedule (Schedule A), showing the Acts and parts of Acts which are embodied in the Roll, or have been superseded by enactments included therein or are inconsistent therewith, and showing in the third column of the Schedule the extent to which the Acts and parts of Acts are from the time of the coming in force of the Revised Statutes of 1914 to be repealed.

The Commissioners have also appended to the Roll a schedule (Schedule B) showing the enactments contained in the Revised Statutes of 1897 and subsequent Public General Acts which have been repealed or superseded by subsequent legislation, and showing where the various Acts and parts of Acts which remain in force have been embodied in the present revision.

The Commissioners held their first meeting on the fifth day of July, 1906. It having become evident that the usefulness of the work of the Commission would be greatly increased if their powers were enlarged in order to enable them to prepare and suggest such changes in the law as appeared desirable in view of altered conditions and the improvement in modern legislative methods, a further commission was issued authorizing the Commissioners "to prepare a draft revision of the Public Statutes of the Province, and to report from time to time such changes in any Act as they might deem advisable, having regard to the improvement of the wording and arrangement of the Statutes and the elimination therefrom of such matters as the Commissioners might deem obsolete, unsuitable or useless, and to submit such changes as they might deem advisable in the public interest."

In pursuance of the instructions contained in this Commission the Commissioners have from time to time reported the Acts and Statutes re-drafted, revised and consolidated by them, and they have been adopted and passed by the Legislature during the Sessions held in the years 1907 to 1913 inclusive.

Every Act so dealt with has been the subject of careful examination at the meetings of the Commission, and in most instances has been before the Commission more than once in revised form before the draft bill was finally settled.

The Commissioners in numerous instances have been able to serve the greater convenience of the public and the legal profession by providing uniform methods of procedure,—by re-arranging the Statutes so that the sections follow in their logical order, and by the elimination of obsolete enactments and phraseology and the substitution of a clear and concise method of expression. They have also been enabled to shorten and condense the Statutes by the adoption of carefully prepared interpretation clauses, and a short title has been given to each Chapter.

Throughout the work of the Commission recourse has been had to such Imperial and Dominion enactments as might form useful precedents,—it having been considered by the Commission highly desirable in view of the judicial interpretation of these, that the legislation of Ontario should be as far as possible uniform with that of the British and Canadian Parliaments.

One result of the method adopted by the Commission is that instead of three hundred and forty-two chapters contained in the Revised Statutes of 1897, and notwithstanding the additions made to the volume of legislation during the seventeen Sessions of the Legislature since the last revision, the Revised Statutes of 1914 will contain but three hundred and one chapters, and these will occupy a slightly less number of pages than those of the last revision.

The Commissioners have held more than nine hundred meetings,—meeting usually two or three evenings in each week, and during the legal vacations daily in the month of July and in the Christmas vacation, and have had the benefit of the experience and practical knowledge of many of the principal officers of the various branches of the public service, who have attended at these meetings while the Acts with which they were more particularly concerned were under discussion.

The Commissioners, when requested so to do by members of the Government, have considered the views and suggestions made by persons and bodies more immediately interested in particular Acts.

While the work has been in progress proposals as to changes in the law, petitioned for or recommended or embodied in bills submitted to the Assembly, have been frequently referred to the Commission to be considered and reported upon by them, in order that their effect and their bearing upon existing legislation might be clearly understood, before the policy of the Legislature with regard to them was determined.

Note as to Statute Revisions in the Provinces of Upper Canada, Canada and Ontario.

The history of the Statute Law applicable to the territory now comprised in the Province of Ontario, dates from 1791.

After the Treaty of Paris, 1763, by which the French possessions in North America were ceded to Great Britain, a Royal Proclamation was issued on the 7th October, 1763, introducing the law of England both civil and criminal, into the whole of the ceded territory, and forming a portion of it, lying towards the East, into the Province of Quebec. The Governor of the new colony received power and direction "so soon as the state and circumstances of the colony would admit thereof, to summon and call a General Assembly," but until this was done, the Governor and Council were invested with "authority to make such rules and regulations as should appear to be necessary for the peace, order and good government of the Province." In 1774 the Quebec Act, 14 Geo. III. c. 83, was passed, by which French law was re-introduced in civil matters, and the limits of the Province of Quebec were enlarged, so as to include the whole of the territory afterwards formed into Upper Canada. The Quebec Act produced dissatisfaction, especially among the British colonists, and in 1791, the Imperial Act, 31 Geo. III. c. 31, was passed, by which the Province of Quebec as it then existed, was divided into the two Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada; the powers of legislation by the Governor in Council were taken away; and a Legislature was granted to each Province, consisting of the Governor, a Legislative Council, and a Legislative Assembly. The first Parliament of Upper Canada met at Newark, now Niagara, on 18th September, 1792.

1. The first revision of the Statutes in the new Province of Upper Canada was made in 1818. It consisted merely of a collection of the Acts of the Province of Upper Canada in force at that date, together with such Acts of the Imperial Parliament and Ordinances of the former Province of Quebec as affected Upper Canada.

2. In 1831, a collection of the Statutes of Upper Canada, in force at that date, was published by Messrs. Hugh C. Thomson and James Macfarlane, which, though a private enterprise, long supplied the place of a revision by authority.

3. In 1840, was passed the Imperial Act 3 & 4 V. c. 35, to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada; and the Union took effect by proclamation on the 10th February, 1841. A revision was soon after begun of the Statutes of Upper Canada in force at the date of the Union. A commission for the purpose, dated 25th July, 1840, was issued to the Honourable John Beverley Robinson, the Honourable James B. Macaulay, the Honourable William Henry Draper, and John Hillyard Cameron, Esq., and directed the Commissioners "diligently" and carefully to examine and revise the several statutes from time to time passed and enacted by the Parliament of Upper Canada, and "then in force and effect; and to make such report upon the premises

“ as in their opinion should be most for the interest, welfare and good “ government of the Province.”

The result of the labours of the Commission was embodied in two volumes, the first containing Public Acts, and the second, Local and Private Acts. The report to the Governor-General, in which the Commissioners announced the completion of the work, is dated 8th March, 1843, and was printed as a preface to the first volume.

In this, as in former revisions, no consolidation strictly speaking of the Statutes was attempted. The various Acts in force were printed as they had been passed, omitting only such portions as had expired or had been repealed, with notes stating the reasons for omissions, and giving the provisions, if any, which the Legislature had substituted for repealed clauses; errors in the text were left uncorrected, except by way of a note directing attention to them; and the revision did not receive authority by legislative adoption, but was nevertheless, by general use, practically substituted for the preceding volumes of Statutes.

4. A revision of the Acts and Ordinances in force in Lower Canada at the date of the Union of Upper and Lower Canada was begun in 1842, and completed in 1845, by a Commission composed of Messrs. A. Buchanan, H. Heney and G. W. Wicksteed. The Commissioners made two reports, which, as well as a prefatory notice, was printed with the volume of Revised Statutes compiled by them.

5. In 1856 was begun the first consolidation, properly so called, of the Statute Law.

Two commissions were then issued, one on the 7th February, 1856, appointing Messrs. John Hillyard Cameron, Joseph C. Morrison, Adam Wilson, Skeffington Connor, Oliver Mowat, and David B. Read, to examine, revise, consolidate and classify the Public General Statutes affecting Upper Canada only; and a second dated 28th March, 1856, appointing Messrs. A. Polette, Gustavus W. Wicksteed, Andrew Stuart, T. J. J. Loranger, Robert Mackay, and George de Boucherville, to examine, revise, consolidate and classify the Public General Statutes applying exclusively to Lower Canada; and each Commission directed the Commissioners therein named, jointly with the members of the other Commission, to examine, revise, consolidate and classify the Public General Statutes which applied equally to both sections of the Province.

Subsequently the Messrs. Cameron and Morrison resigned, and in their stead respectively the Honourable J. B. Macaulay and S. H. Strong, Esq., were appointed. Afterwards Dr. Connor and Mr. Mowat also resigned, preparatory to their becoming candidates for election as members of the Legislative Assembly. The Commissioners were in a later stage of the work, and especially during its final revision, assisted by His Honour Judge Gowan, County Court Judge of the County of Simcoe.

The first report of the Commission was made on the 19th April, 1858, and drafts of the Consolidated Statutes for Upper Canada and the Consolidated Statutes of Canada were in 1859 submitted to the Governor-General, accompanied respectively by a report, dated January, 1859, by Sir J. B. Macaulay, the Chairman of the Upper Canada Commission, and a joint report dated 3rd March, 1859, by Sir

J. B. Macaulay and Mr. Wicksteed, the acting Commissioner of the Commission for Lower Canada. (See Sess. Papers, 1859, No. 9.)

At the Session of 1859 these two volumes were laid before the Legislative Assembly, and Acts were passed to provide for their coming into force by proclamation.

Pursuant to the provisions of the last mentioned Acts, the enactments of the then Session were incorporated with the consolidation; and the two volumes were by proclamation declared to come into force upon the 5th December, 1859.

On 1st July, 1867, by Proclamation issued under the Imperial Act, 30 and 31 V. c. 3, the Province of Canada was, with the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, formed into the present Dominion of Canada. By that Act known as "The British North America Act, 1867," the two divisions of the Province of Canada were once more constituted separate Provinces, Upper Canada being called the Province of Ontario, and Lower Canada the Province of Quebec, and the power of legislation was divided between the Parliament of the Dominion and the Legislatures of the Provinces in manner defined by the Act.

6. "The Revised Statutes of Ontario" were prepared by a Commission appointed 24th July, 1874, composed in the first instance of the late Honourable William Henry Draper, Chief Justice of Appeal; the Honourable Samuel Henry Strong, Honourable George William Burton, and Honourable Christopher Salmon Patterson, Justices of Appeal; the Honourable Oliver Mowat, Attorney-General; and Messrs. Thomas Langton, Charles R. W. Biggar and Rupert Etherege Kingsford, Barristers-at-Law. The Honourable Thomas Moss upon his appointment as Justice of Appeal, the Honourable Samuel Hume Blake, Vice-Chancellor, and His Honour Judge Gowan, County Court Judge of the County of Simcoe, were subsequently added to the Commission.

The work of the Commission was three-fold:

First. To examine, revise, consolidate and classify such of the Public General Statutes, passed by the Parliament of the Province of Canada and applying to Ontario as were within the legislative authority of the Legislature of Ontario.

Secondly. To examine and arrange in the manner most convenient for reference such of the Public General Statutes passed by the Parliament of the Province of Canada and applying to Ontario as were not within the legislative authority of the Legislature of Ontario; and also the Statutes passed by the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada and affecting Ontario;

Thirdly. To examine and arrange in the manner most convenient for reference the Statutes of the Imperial Parliament, printed with the Consolidated Statutes of Canada in 1859, as well as all Statutes since passed by the Imperial Parliament.

This Commission made three reports, dated respectively 12th December, 1874, 11th December, 1875, and 30th December, 1876. The first report was accompanied by tables showing the consolidation in outline. The second report announced the completion of the collection of the Imperial Acts, and contained suggestions for legislation to remove discrepancies discovered in the course of the work, and otherwise to facilitate consolidation. Specimens of the work done were also submitted with this report. With the third report was submitted a draft of the Revised Statutes, which was laid before the Legislature at its Session in 1877.

A volume of 633 pages, being a portion of the collection of enactments of the Dominion of Canada, and of the Province of Canada which were not within the legislative authority of the Legislature of Ontario, was presented with the second report; but the completion of this portion of the work of the Commission was afterwards abandoned, in view of the preliminary steps which had been taken by the Dominion Government for a Consolidation of Statutes that would include the Acts of which the Ontario collection would have been composed.

The enactments of the Session of 1877, were, pursuant to the Ontario Act, 40 V. c. 6, incorporated in the Draft Consolidation above mentioned, by a commission appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor, composed of the following members: the Honourable Chief Justice Draper, the Honourable Mr. Justice Strong, the Honourable Mr. Justice Burton, the Honourable Mr. Justice Patterson, the Honourable Mr. Justice Moss, the Honourable Vice-Chancellor Blake, His Honour Judge Gowan, the Honourable Oliver Mowat, Attorney-General, and Thomas Langton, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

The completion of their work was reported by the Commissioners on the 20th November, 1877, to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, and the Revision being approved of by him, a proclamation was, on the 7th December, 1877, issued, declaring the Revised Statutes to be in force on, from, and after the 31st December, 1877.
